INT.JENNY'S BEDROOM.DAY

Jenny, a small Asian five-year-old girl, sits on her bed amongst an array of colorful stuffed animals and dolls.

JENNY

Hi. Um. My name is Jenny Lee I am five years and three months old and my favorite animal is a hippo and my favorite fruit is a tangerine. I live at 1550 Robincrest Lane with my mom and my dad and my little brother Danny. Today I'm going to um tell you and talk about my family. My brother Danny. He's almost three years old. Today he woke up and pooped on the floor and my daddy stepped in it. My mom calls Danny the little monster cause he's fat and hairy. Oh, and I know he's a boy cause he has a wiener. I've also seen a wiener dog once at a park. The lady with the dog had a big butt....I poked it and she thought my dad did it. Haha. That was the day I first saw a tampon machine in the bathroom. And I know what a tampon is. My mom said when you use it your husband has to be nice to you. So, when I get married, I plan on always using one. My dad. My mom says my dad makes a lot of money for doing nothing. He usually gets mad after she says that but I don't know why? He's so lucky. I don't think that's fair. I don't do anything every single day and I don't get any money. Only from the tooth fairy and that's like five cents. My mom. I think my mom is so pretty. Once my dad said she's getting kind of old. But I know she's not because every year on her birthday she tells everyone she's thirty-two. She never gets older at all. My grandparents are divorced. That means they aren't married. One time I asked my grandma why they are divorced and she said it was because grandpa wasn't nice to her. I told her she should have used more tampons. My grandpa is really funny. But he likes to yell at little kids. We went to the store last week and uh some kids outside were messing around with the carts. And when we were leaving he yelled out the window, "you kids are animals! You should be locked up in the zoo!" Haha. Oh and I've seen my grandpa take out his teeth! I used to have a fish name Stinker who was blind but he killed himself because he kept running into the edge of his bowl. My mommy said he had a great life and many friends...but I didn't ever see him have any friends over. Not even one. My mom said he is in heaven but I hope he's not because I don't think there is any water in heaven so he'd probably die up there too and then fall out of the sky and hit me when I'm walking down the street. So that's my entire family. It's everything important you need to know. Oh and we have a puppy name Tootie who once ate my mom's purse and then he went on doggie vacation to Hawaii. He sent us a postcard and said he's having so much fun surfing he doesn't even want to come back! I'm so jealous. The end.
